FOR DEMO COMPANIES:

☐ We have a demo booth at the event. We have trained and made the staff at our booth aware of the hazards to be expected on site. We have read and are committed to following the 'Health & Safety Rules' in the Manual. We have completed a risk assessment and conclude that our booth, demonstrations, and work practices will cause no significant risk to either others or ourselves on site. We have sufficient Public Liability Insurance. Both this and the risk assessment are available on request.
